Call to Order

Chairman Kevin Burke called the meeting to order at 10:05 a.m.

Welcome New Board Members

Chairman Burke recognized a new appointment to the Council Board, Richard Schiafo. Mr. Schiafo is a Principal Planner with the Greene County Department of Economic Development, Tourism and Planning, and has been appointed to the Greenway Council by Patrick S. Linger, Chairman of the Greene County Legislature and Chief Elected Official. Mr. Schiafo thanked the Board and noted that he was very excited to be a part of the board.

Chairman Burke also welcomed Christian Leo, a new delegate to the Board for the Commissioner of the Office of General Services.

Presentations

Chairman McHenry introduced Megan Phillips, Senior Policy Advisor for the Environment in the Office of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo. Ms. Phillips noted that she has previously worked with the State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation as well as the Department of State and feels a personal connection to the Greenway. Ms. Phillips congratulated the Greenway on their Tourism Association Award for the Hudson River Train Tour App, as well as the successful completion of the 20th Annual Hudson River Valley Ramble.

Ms. Phillips noted that her office oversees eight environmental agencies from large to small, and she has learned how planning really touches everything, such as the Greenway Compact. She also noted the Empire State Trail and the sister Water Trail to the Empire State Trail, and how these initiatives can be used to benefit communities and link downtowns.

Ms. Phillips spoke about a new habitat restoration program recently announced by Governor Cuomo in NYC, where they will be doubling shellfish restoration off Long Island. Revive Mother Nature will identify priority projects for habitat improvement. This new habitat restoration initiative will be fully outlined at the 2020 State of the State. Ms. Phillips noted that the Greenway is a good example of telling the story of a place.

Michelle Smith asked whether the habitat restoration initiative will be expanded to land habitat, and Ms. Phillips answered that they are still working that out. Andy Bicking noted that this is an exciting project, and that the relationship and balance between public access and protection of resources is an important issue.

Linda von der Heide asked if the project team will be looking at the issue of invasive species, and Ms. Phillips said they will be thinking about that in their planning process.

Betty Head brought up the Climate Smart Communities program and asked if there will be some money in the budget for this program. Ms. Phillips noted that the numbers are still being hashed out but that the team will work closely with communities and will seek to hear from stakeholders. She noted that Revive Mother Nature will explore funding options and will be working on projects that have been identified by state agencies as priority.

Chairman Burke suggested that it would be beneficial to explore providing guidance on manmade ponds that are going back to wetlands and what process that should take, whether to preserve the pond or to let the wetlands take over.

Kitty Brown noted that many partners have provided written comment on the Danskammer plant plan for Newburgh, that they would like Danskammer to respond to flaws in the plan, especially considering environmental justice. Ms. Phillips said that several folks on her team are working on environmental justice issues.

Proclamations

Chairman Burke introduced Executive Director Scott Keller, who read two proclamations. The first was a Certificate of Highest Merit for Peggy Lockwood, from Fort Montgomery State Historic Site, for her generous donation of effort, time, and talent to the 20th Anniversary of the Hudson River Valley Ramble by creating a memorial t-shirt quilt using various Ramble leader shirts from the past twenty years. The second was a Volunteer Recognition Certificate presented to David and Carol White, for their dedication and commitment to the Hudson River Valley Greenway and their efforts to promote our region by hosting hikes for nearly 20 years on the Hudson River Valley Ramble.

Chairman Burke called for a vote, and on a motion from Jane Daniels (Linda von der Heide second) the Certificates were unanimously approved.

Agenda Review

Chairman Burke recognized that today was Yom Kippur, one of the holiest days in the Jewish faith, but that it was the only date available for the Board Meeting. Chairman Burke then called for any changes and additions to the agenda. Mr. Keller noted that there would be an addendum to the agenda, a Community designation

Approval of minutes of June 12, 2019 Combined Meeting of the Hudson River Valley Greenway Communities Council, Greenway Conservancy for the Hudson River Valley, Inc. and Greenway Heritage Conservancy HRV, Inc.

Chairman Burke then asked for a motion to accept the minutes of the June 12, 2019 Greenway Joint Meeting. On a motion from Bob Elliott, (Mary McNamara second) the minutes of the June 12, 2019 Combined Meeting of the Hudson River Valley Greenway Communities Council, Greenway Conservancy for the Hudson River Valley, Inc. and Greenway Heritage Conservancy HRV, Inc. were unanimously approved.

there were roughly 210 events this year. Ms. Campochiaro also thanked Cody Arana, the Greenway's Assistant Event Coordinator, for all of his hard work on the Ramble this year. Through Cody's research, the Greenway was able to estimate that over 20 years, the Ramble has had 500 agency and organizational partners, and more than 3,500 events. Ms. Campochiaro also noted that Conservancy Member Jane Daniels had run a Ramble event every year with her husband Walt.

Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary Route National Historic Trail (WARO)

Scott Keller announced that the National Park Service had identified 14 sites in New York that will be interpreted as part of the trail. The New York delegation reviewed the list and suggested two additional sites, including West Point. Scott Keller announced that the National Park Service was planning a commemoration of the centennial of the 19th Amendment, and that the Hudson River Valley National Heritage Area would be assisting by reaching out to partner heritage sites. More details would be forthcoming.

Greenway Conservancy for the Hudson River Valley, Inc.

Call to Order

Chairman Burke called the Conservancy meeting to order.

Designation of Empire State Trail as a Greenway Trail

Scott Keller noted that as part of the Greenway Trail Grants Program, all grantees are required to nominate their trail to become part of the Greenway Trail. While some portions of the Empire State Trail (EST) are on existing designated portions, there are roughly 184.6 miles of EST currently undesignated. The Conservancy Board must affirm designation of the remaining portions as part of the Greenway Trail. Chairman Burke called for a vote, and on a motion from Jane Daniels (Sarah Olson second) the designation was unanimously approved. The entire Empire State Trail in the Hudson River Valley Greenway area will be part of the Greenway Trail System once construction is complete in 2020.

Recognition of Hyde Park Trail

Scott Keller noted that the entirety of the Hyde Park Trail system was designated as part of the Greenway Trail at the June 12, 2019 Greenway Board Meeting. However, several important people were unable to attend that meeting and the Mr. Keller recognized those in attendance today, including Kathleen Davis, the happily retired Town of Hyde Park Recreation Director, and Karl Beard, of the National Park Service Rivers, Trails and Conservation Assistance Program. Mr. Beard noted that the first 3.1 miles of the trail had been designated in 1991, so this was a long time in the making. He congratulated all of the collaborators on the project, including NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, Winnakee Land Trust, Scenic Hudson, the ADK, NY-NJ Trail Conference, Dutchess County Planning, the Department of Health, and several scouts. He noted what a great leader Kathleen Davis has been.

Update on Empire State Trail

Andy Beers, Empire State Trail Director, noted that there was a fall update for both the Empire State Trail and specifically the Albany Hudson Electric Trail portion in the Board Packets. Both of these reports are also available on the website. He noted that 30% of the projects have been completed, and that there is a brand-new Gateway at the NY State Fair.

Executive Director's Report

Mr. Keller thanked the staff for their hard work. His Executive Director's Report is appended to and a part of these minutes.

New Business/Public Comment

Kitty Brown asked where the public should go with questions or issues on the Empire State Trail. Scott Keller answered that a system was being developed to report issues, but for now the point of contact should be Andy Beers.

Priscilla Brendler from Greater Hudson Heritage Network thanked the National Heritage Area for their sponsorship of their September 24th conference, and thanked Dan Jeanson and Cody Arana for coming to talk to participants. The 2019 workshop series, Harnessing the Power of Stories, will help sites to tell their stories more effectively. There are three more webinars coming up.

Empire State Water Trail

In his 2019 State of the State, Governor Andrew M. Cuomo announced that to complement the Governor's Empire State Trail, a sister water trail will be developed, linking together over 1,700 miles of existing water trails, on navigable State waterways, with consistent branding and website development. The Hudson River Valley Greenway has been asked to take the lead on this project. Scott Keller, Beth Campochiaro, and Cody Arana are working on this exciting project, that is the culmination of 25+ years of water trail work by the Greenway and many public and private sector partners around the state.

On May 24th the Greenway hosted the first meetings of the Data/Website Development and Signage/Branding sub-committees. Items discussed included establishing the committees' purpose, identifying and prioritizing tasks, and discussing the data necessary to be collected to form the desired map on the website and development of a logo. Those projects were advanced over the summer.

Empire State Trail (EST)

The Empire State Trail team, Andy Beers, Paul Glesta, and Dara Morin continue working to meet the 2020 deadline to implement the EST. A website for the trail is available at Empire State Trail link. We have released an Empire State Trail Plan, an Empire State Trail Design Guide, and an Empire State Trail User Projection.

The most exciting development is that construction has started on the Albany Hudson Electric Trail in both Rensselaer and northern Columbia counties! Several sections in Columbia County are nearing completion, but no segments are yet open. The Greenway's target date for completing construction of the AHET Trail is November 2020. Visit Albany Hudson Electric Trail link for more information.

The Maybrook Trailway (previously called Beacon Line Rail Trail), running from Brewster to Hopewell Junction is being constructed by Metro North Railroad. Construction has begun on this segment of the trail as well. Visit Maybrook Trailway link for more information.

The NYS Department of Transportation has released a draft concept plan for the on-road routes. It is available: NYS DOT Empire State Trail link.

Twentieth Annual Hudson River Valley Ramble!

The Hudson River Valley Ramble just completed its twentieth anniversary run with a five-weekend series featuring some 200 events. Thank you and congratulations go out to all the event leaders who have participated in the Ramble. Data is still being gathered on attendance and other metrics for this year, but we do have historic numbers: more than 500 partners have held over 3,500 events. We will have a 2019 report at our next meeting.

During the summer we received an unusual request from Fort Montgomery State Historic Site (FMSHS) for past tee shirts. Peggy Lockwood, a staff member at FMSHS made a quilt from the old tee shirts and sent it to our office. We will honor Peggy's outstanding work at our October meeting.

We also will be celebrating David and Carol White who have led events for eighteen of the first nineteen years we held the Ramble. We will also be recognizing their invaluable contribution to the Ramble.

Hudson River Train Tour App Wins New York Tourism Industry Association Award

The National Heritage Area's Hudson River Train Tour App was awarded the New York Tourism Industry Association's Digital Campaign Marketing Award at their meeting on September 27th in Auburn. The awards committee determined that we had leveraged limited funding into thousands of downloads of the app. The NHA is proud to receive this award from such an important tourism partner. As part of this award Scott Keller was interviewed for the Destination On the Left podcast featuring all of the award winners.

Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary Route National Historic Trail (WARO/W3R)

The National Park Service is responsible for managing the Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary Route National Historic Trail (WARO). The friend's group, who we work with and participate on is the Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary Route Association, Inc. (WS3R) a 501(c)(3) corporation. The NPS recently appointed Steve Sims Superintendent and Johnny Carawan as the Trail Administrator. Johnny and a consulting firm spent September holding meetings in each state with WARO historic sites. A few members of the W3R group, including Scott Keller, were invited in each state. The NPS has created a Foundation Document and a Long-Range Interpretive Plan. They have identified fourteen critical sites in New York that should be a part of the trail. The New York delegation had suggestions to add a couple more sites. WARO is planning to update the current signage package to MUTCD standards so they may be placed on highways as directional signs, and are exploring creating a driving tour app modeled on our Hudson River Train Tour app.

Staff Activities

In addition to those activities mentioned above, staff also worked on these projects:

Grants and Finance Coordinator Shannon Day continued her many and varied internal administrative tasks such as tenant meetings, FOIL request responses, records retention, and moving the office towards paperless filing. Shannon also completed our annual internal controls certification for both the State Comptroller and the Division of Budget, as well as the Control over Payment Process Certification, completed the bi-annual Domestic Violence in the Workplace report, attended a building tenant meeting, and participated in training for the state's new procurement system. Shannon also has begun enhanced training in the Greenway's finance systems and assisted with audit preparations, and underwent Audit/Internal Control training.

Shannon, Beth, Dan, and Scott attended an annual review of our state website with ITS Web-NY staff. Information provided is helping us to make our website more accessible.

Trails and Community Outreach Director Beth Campochiaro and Assistant Event Coordinator Cody Arana worked diligently on the 20th annual Hudson River Valley Ramble, and also assisted Scott Keller on the Empire State Water Trail and attended a Coast Guard Open House in Albany.

Cody and Project Director Dan Jeanson represented the Greenway and NHA at two Greater Hudson Heritage Network events, a workshop on Connecting Collections and Audience and at their annual conference.

Cody and Scott also attended a Hudson River Harbor Safety Committee meeting.

Cody also staffed our booth at a maritime festival at the Hudson River Maritime Museum, prepared four months of newsletters, performed social media upkeep for the Ramble, Greenway, and HR Greenway Water Trail.

Dan Jeanson and Scott Keller have participated in two planning sessions for a Sharing Women's History in the Hudson River Valley gathering as part of the centennial celebration of the passage of the 19th amendment, giving women the right to vote.

Beth Campochiaro also attended a Hudson River Resiliency meeting, prepared reports for the state under Executive Order #4 Establishing a State Green Procurement and Agency Sustainability Program and Executive Order #166 Redoubling New York's Fight Against The Economic And Environmental Threats Posed By Climate Change And Affirming The Goals Of The Paris Climate Agreement reporting, and is continuing enhanced training in the Greenway's finance systems.

Dan Jeanson also continued working on updates to the Hudson River Train Tour app, including ten new audio stories. He has also monitored our social media campaigns for the app and NHA and represented the Greenway at the reopening of the Cohoes Visitor Center.

Executive Director Scott Keller is participating in efforts by the Hudson River Estuary Program to develop guidelines for restoring scenic vistas, and on creating resilient shorelines. He also participated in a W3R symposium on the crossing of the Hudson by the armies of Washington and Rochambeau. The Greenway provided a grant for a series of two symposia. He was asked to read the Greenway's proclamation remembering and honoring the late Frank Bergman at a meeting of the Hudson River Boat and Yacht Club Association.

As always, the entire staff participated in reviewing grants applications for Greenway Council Planning and National Heritage Area grants. Shannon, Beth, and Dan are working with communities and non-profits to resolve expired grants. Our staff works with these grantees to extend grant performance times, complete grant projects, or return funds that will not be used.
